BROTHERHOOD WEEK

One Nation Under God... INDIVISIBLE

A truly united people is a strong people. This country is as fine an example of diversity welded into one people as can be found. The world calls the United States the melting pot. Over the years the differences in our people become less and less as the similarities become stronger. Like all brothers, we have problems which the enemies of freedom like to intensify. Only by dividing us can they make us fall. So, it is important that - united we stand.

SCHOLARSHIP BALL HELD AT ORRHS

A very successful ball for the benefit of the Dollars for Scholars campaign was held last Saturday night at the Old Rochester Regional High School. The cafeteria was beautifully decorated in a George Washington Birthday theme. Central feature was a real tree (cut Saturday morning in Rochester) which was loaded with giant red cherries. The supporting pillars of the hall were wound with colorful paper and hung with many axes. Centerpieces for the tables arranged around the hall were hatchets in blocks of wood. It made a beautiful setting for the first dance of the Scholarship Committee. The dance was well supported by all three towns. As they entered, everyone was furnished with a name tag so that easy identification would be possible. Couples occupied tables which surrounded the dance floor in cafe style. Ray Besse and his orchestra provided the very enjoyable music in a smooth, danceable style.

We hope that you enjoyed our Open House. Now, we invite everyone in for a leisurely second look. Be thorough, take a test drive. We have great cars in the 1964 line and we like to show them off. Come in very soon.

Even with the very good attendance, the spacious hall provided plenty of room for the dancing couples.

A spotlight dance was one of the specialties. Couples danced until the music stopped and one of the spotlights illuminated winning teams. At intermission, there was an unexpected appearance by the "Beatles". Announced by Ray Besse, the hairy quartet bounced into the spotlight and proceeded to swing into a pantomime of "I Want to Hold Your Hand" to a recording by the real Beatles. While the gathering was remarkable restrained as for as screams were concerned, the music lovers among them were nevertheless delighted with the performance.

Again, we extend our appreciation and gratitude for your pleasant cooperation and patronage during our early stages of development.

Of considerable interest this year is the article concerning the proposed Vocational Technical High School. Legal technicalities involving the town of Mashpee have arisen because the Town has to have State legislation granting permission for it to join the district before it can vote at Town Meeting. Recent developments regarding Mashpee's position and its effect on the regional planning units will be clarified by Mr. Albert C. Jenney, Rochester member of the Old Rochester Regional School Planning Board.

Other basic information pertaining to the various phases of constructing and maintaining such a school will be given. Other members of the committee are John F. Hayes, Jr. and Robert Hellyer. Mr. Joseph Kunces, superintendent of schools for Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester and a member of the Educational Advisory Committee for the proposed Vocational Technical Regional School District Planning Board, will attend and give his views as an educator on the need for the school in this area.

Rochester residents are urged to attend this important meeting. A coffee hour will follow, served by members of the executive board.

WOMAN'S CLUB HEAR SPEAKER

Problems of the aged were explained by Mrs. Norman Turcotte, administrator of the Mattapoisett Nursing Home, for members of the Rochester Woman's Club at the February meeting. "A nursing home," she said, "should be a part of the community and we welcome questions on the subject of helping the aged."

Mrs. Turcotte told of various precautions that should be taken in a home where there are elderly people. It is unwise to have scatter rugs on polished floors and safety rails may be purchased for the bath. A telephone check system is most helpful and she observed that the United Churches in New Bedford have "Buddy System". The importance of encouraging an interest in hobbies was stressed and persons unable to get out enjoy having visitors and hearing outside news. A blendor is a useful aid in preparing foods and grinding meat is important. Mrs. Turcotte spoke with appreciation of the members of church and other groups who visit the home and bring cheer to the occupants.

Members were urged to attend a meeting of the Upper Cape Cod Regional Vocational-Technical School District Planning Committee which will be held at 7:30 P.M. Monday at Bourne Memorial Community Building.

It was voted to contribute pastries to the Tobey Snack Bar during April. A committee will be appointed by the president. A report on the mid-winter meeting of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs was given by Mrs. Henry Smith. The meeting was held in John Hancock Hall, Boston, on January 29 and over 600 members attended. The main address, "Crisis and Challenge", was given by the Honorable William D. Fleming, chairman of the Massachusetts Senate Committee on Ways and Means. He explained that his job is to provide a budget for all public services and to evaluate public benefit to be received from the passage of bills. He noted the alarming rise in the State debt, from nothing in the year 1937 to 722 million dollars in 1963. Senator Fleming urged that informed citizens take an active interest in the problems of government. He commended Mrs. J. Carroll Morris, legislative observer for the State Federation of Women's Clubs, for her attendance at all legislative sessions at the State House. Through the interest of people like her who take home the facts to their organizations and communities, a proper balance will be achieved between our electorate and the public.

Dr. Harry Solomon, Commissioner of Mental Health, gave a talk on the responsibilities of his department, one of twenty in the state government. He has been connected with this department for over forty years. He is responsible for the mentally ill and retarded of the Commonwealth and the investigation of the cause and treatment in this field. Dr. Solomon is one of the persons who have initiated a training program for high school students interested in a career in this field. He stated that Massachusetts has a leadership in mental health work and in recent years, twenty-four clinics have been opened for children. There are new plans for building six to eight centers across the state that will be near homes of patients and will take care of all types. He noted that every year since 1700 the number of patients increased until 1955 when it stabilized and then has slowly and steadily decreased.

Mrs. Frederick J. Wood, state president, presided at the business meeting. The invocation was given by Mrs. John H. Hitchcock, chairman of religion, and the pledge of allegiance was led by Mrs. Marshall W. Ross, of Mattapoisett, recording secretary. Mrs. W.

H-300 extends time for the consumer credit study and H-595 permits the payment of library grants-in-aid directly to trustees of local public libraries without further appropriation. This is permissible under Chapter 44, Section 53 of the General Laws and is no different than state or county funds granted for road work. It seems necessary to establish this protective feature for grants-in-aid whose purpose is to stimulate local communities to improve services as differentiated from aid to reduce local tax rates which is presently under discussion in the press. It was also voted to support education bills H-28; H-137 to establish a library and center for visually handicapped, and bills S-77; S-85 which list aid available for higher education.

A standing vote against legalized gambling of 652 delegates and non-delegates was counted. These bills favor sweepstakes and lotteries, Boston City Lotteries, off-track betting, Beano and games of chance and permits wagering on jai-alia. Members were urged to support House Bill H-727 which permits purchaser of new motor vehicle to specify safety harnesses preference to safety belts. Luncheon was served in the Dorothy Quincy Suite. HAROLD W. VOKES

FOR SELECTMAN AND BOARD OF PUBLIC WELFARE

To be in government is to be a representative of the people. (Many times my belief in that Constitutional Truth has been somewhat shaken). To be a selectman in this Town of Mattapoisett, or any town, is to be an individual, selected by the people, who should endeavor to the limits of his ability to carry out the will of the majority without intolerance to the minority.

Town ordinances are made for all to recognize but in all our intentions to blueprint a straight road for all to follow, there must occur variances of either human nature or human needs. It is the duty of selectmen to chart a true and safe course through such a maze of hazards, either by compromise, or by a firm hand on the helm.

I am not running on a reformist platform nor am I riding a white horse on a crusade, or waving a sword over any head. There's enough to do in the Town office without those none realities. The problems--beyond the normal, routine duties of the office, of which there are many--as they arise are all of the former and it is then when the wisdom of judgment, of past experience, of human understanding becomes so much a necessary part of a selectman's need.

Shaw. Invocation was given by Mrs. Marjorie H. Wilson, Chaplain. Routine business was conducted. Mrs. Edna L. Borden, secretary, was instructed to write Honorable Hastings Keith, Congressman of the 12th Massachusetts District, of the Circle's interest in having prayers restored in the public schools, and to request him to sign the Congressman Frank Becker Resolution, as the quickest way to get action.

Mrs. Borden was also instructed to write to Congressman E. Y. Berry of South Dakota, assuring him of the Circle's interest in his presentation before the House Rules Committee, asking that some special programs of Indians be included in the Civil Rights Bill. He particularly urged an amendment that would allow a Federal tax exemption for any industry that would locate on an Indian reservation and provide training and jobs for Indians. JUVENILE GRANGE MEETING

Mattapoisett Juvenile Grange held its bi-monthly meeting Friday night with the worthy master, Doris Fearing, presiding.

One of the national Juvenile projects is to have a round glass globe appropriately decorated. As the various projects set up for the Juveniles by State and National Granges are completed, a miniature item symbolizing the project is placed in the bowl. So far it shows the Thanksgiving cards sent out to shut ins, napkin rings made by the committee for the Nursing Home at Christmas, helping the subordinate sell candy for their project, and taking a Christmas cheer basket to a young boy.

Their next miniature to be put in the bowl will be the Health program and Home and Community Service program for the lecturer. This bowl will go to State Grange in the fall to be judged by other Juveniles in the State. The winning one for Massachusetts will go up for National judging.

February 27, 1964

Dear Voter:

Your ballot on the 3rd of March 1964 will list my name, David N. Haley, as one of your choices for Selectman. Your confidence and your vote are equally important if I am to serve you as an effective town official. The following remarks sketch my background and outline a few of my beliefs concerning town government.

Kay and I have now lived in Mattapoisett for ten years. Our three children agree with us that this is where we want our home. I am 43 years old and am Chief Engineer of the New Bedford Division of Revere Copper and Brass Incorporated. I received my Engineering degree from Northeastern University.

Mattapoisett's biggest problem today, as I see it, is really a traditional one, growth. The past twenty years have been marked by growth problems, and every indication is that we must expect even more severe problems in the future.

I am a political conservative and strongly feel that our Selectmen must make the decisions that can give us the maximum benefits of vigorous growth along with the protections that our long standing institutions and local beauty deserve. I see no reason to believe that our town government needs radical surgery, but rather needs more emphasis on, and refinement of our present laws.

My concept of a desirable Selectman is one who refuses to be influenced by one person or any one group. He should make certain that any individual who comes to him with a problem receives the consideration and "follow through" that results in a clear answer or a satisfactory solution. He should have full respect for the right and dignity of every person having business with the town or an interest in the town. He should have the interest and necessary drive to represent the town vigorously and well. The Selectman's interest should be extended to include our "summer people" who add so much to our town by their presence and their revenue.

The Selectman should be a jealous protector of our proudest institution, our Town Meeting, as long as it is feasible.

Home rule is basic to my political thinking and I do not believe in change for the sake of change. Local politics for the sake of personal gain or special group favor, frankly makes me angry. I would like to do my bit to keep Mattapoisett a desirable place to live for all of us. I sincerely request your vote.

Sincerely,

David N. Haley
